2.1 We may change these Terms and Conditions at any time for any of the reasons set out in Clause 2.2 of these General Terms and Conditions. If we make any changes to:

(a) the General Terms and Conditions, the Special Terms and Conditions for the RaboDirect Current Account, the Special Terms and Conditions for the RaboDirect Savings Account or the Rabo Money Mover, we will give you two months' advance notice by RaboDirect Secure Email or in writing to the last address notified by you to us. If you do not contact us within that two month period to tell us that you do not agree with the change(s) that we propose, you will be deemed to have accepted such change (s). 3. Using the Electronic Banking Services

3.1 You shall comply with our instructions from time to time in relation to the use of the Electronic Banking Services.

3.2 We may impose any conditions, restrictions or obligations of any nature and at any time on the use of the Electronic Banking Services. We will notify you of any such conditions, restrictions or obligations in accordance with Clause 2 of these General Terms and Conditions.

3.4 We reserve the right to block your Device for objectively justified reasons relating to the security of the Device or the suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent use of the Device. If we block your Device, we will notify you of this in accordance with Clause 19 of these General Terms and Conditions before the Device is blocked or immediately afterwards unless such notification by us is prohibited by law. We will unblock your Device once the reasons for blocking no longer exist. 4. Security and Duty of Care

4.1 The PIN and the Devices protect the use of the Electronic Banking Services. You must:

(a) change the PIN code we have given you to a PIN code of your choice when you get your Digipass;

(b) keep your Customer Number and PIN strictly confidential;

(c) memorise your Customer Number and PIN or, if you need to write them down, store them in a discrete location and separately from each other;

(d) always keep your Device separate from your Customer Number and your PIN; and

(f) comply carefully with any further rules and instructions that we give you concerning the PIN

4.2 You must notify us immediately in accordance with Clause 19 of these General Terms and Conditions, if you know or suspect that your PIN is or may be or become known to a third party or if your Device has been lost, stolen, misappropriated or used in an unauthorised manner.

4.3 You must take all reasonable steps to prevent your computer from becoming infected with a virus and to prevent any third party gaining unauthorised access to your computer, its programs and files, the PIN and the Devices. The RaboDirect Website contains some helpful information about preventing your computer from becoming infected with a virus, and preventing any unauthorised access.

5. Devices

5.1 The Devices are our property. Any intellectual property rights of any nature in the Devices belong exclusively to us.

5.2 We give you a non-transferable right to use the Devices that we provide to you as long as you hold Account(s) with us.

5.3 You must treat the Devices with the necessary care and must not make any of them available to others.

5.4 Unless we indicate otherwise in the Special Terms and Conditions which apply to a particular Account or in Clause 9.4 of these General Terms and Conditions, you agree that any loss arising from a Device being stolen, lost, abused, damaged, replicated in an unauthorised manner, changed in an unauthorised manner or destroyed is not recoverable by you from us.

5.5 If you request, we may replace or repair a Device for you. A fee may be payable for this (such fee will be that as may be approved from time to time by the Irish Financial Regulator).

6. Orders

6.1 An Order that is given to us before the cut-off time (12 noon) on a Business Day will be deemed to have been received by us on that Business Day. An Order given either after the cut-off time (12 noon) on a Business Day or on a day that is not a Business Day will be deemed to have been received by us on the next Business Day. Where you have set up a standing order on an Account this will be treated as a recurring Order to transfer money with each individual Order regarded as being received by us on the agreed day for debiting the money from your Account or on the next Business Day if the agreed day is not a Business Day.

6.2 If you give us an Order using the necessary Authentication Code and/or Device(s), in accordance with our terms, conditions, rules and instructions, you are consenting to the execution of the Order by us and are unconditionally bound by such an Order.

6.3 Once the Order has been given to us in accordance with Clause 6.2 of these General Terms and Conditions, you cannot revoke that Order or withdraw your consent to its execution. However, if the Order relates to a recurring Order to transfer money under a standing order, consent to an individual Order or to all such recurring Orders can be withdrawn by notifying our Customer Contact Centre by telephone or by email in accordance with Clause 19 of these General Terms and Conditions before 3 pm on the last Business Day before the agreed day for debiting the money from your Account.

6.4 If you give us an Order without using the necessary Authentication Code and/or Device(s), or such Order is not in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and our rules and/or instructions, we may refuse to execute such an Order. If you give us an Order which is in any way unclear, incomplete or not properly authenticated with the necessary Authentication Code, we are not liable for any errors or delays in the execution of that Order.

6.5 We are not bound to verify the accuracy of the information given in any Order, the identity of the person giving the Order, or the identity of the beneficiary of the Order. You agree that we may, in our discretion, contact you if we require additional information or confirmation from you before we execute the Order. If we are not able to obtain such information or confirmation from you, we may refuse to execute the Order in accordance with Clause 6.6 of these General Terms and Conditions, and you will have to give the Order again.

6.6 If you do not have sufficient funds in your Account, we may refuse to execute an Order or be unable to process an Order, in our absolute discretion. If we decide to execute the Order nonetheless, this is without prejudice to our rights and you must repay any overdrawn amounts to us immediately. If we refuse to execute an Order or if we are unable to process an Order, notification of this will be made available to you.

6.7 Confirmation of the execution of an Order will be available in the form of a confirmation on the secure section of the RaboDirect Website following execution of the Order (or, if the confirmation is received from a third party on your behalf, no later than the first Business Day following receipt of the confirmation from the third party), and you can obtain a statement of the relevant Account including that executed Order in the secure section of the RaboDirect Website no later than the first Business Day following execution of your Order.

6.9 We may decide which debts shall be settled first from any amounts received into the Account. Our rights in this regard supersede any rights of appropriation which you may have from time to time.

6.10 If you send us a cheque for lodgement to an Account of yours with us, you acknowledge that the proceeds of that cheque are not divisible, and the entire amount of the cheque must be lodged to one Account, following which you can transfer all or part of the proceeds of that cheque lodgement from that Account in accordance with these Terms and Conditions.

6.11 If you send us a cheque for lodgement to an Account of yours with us, that cheque must be accompanied by clear instructions (in form and substance satisfactory to us, acting in our sole discretion) as to the specific Account into which that cheque is to be lodged. In the absence of such clear instructions, you agree that we will lodge that cheque to your RaboDirect Savings Account. If you do not provide us with such clear instructions, we shall have no liability to you arising from the lodgement of that cheque to your RaboDirect Savings Account, we shall have no obligation to ask you to confirm the Account(s), and we shall have no obligation to confirm to you that we have lodged that cheque to your RaboDirect Savings Account because we have not received sufficiently clear instructions.

7. Provisional credits to your Account

If we receive an amount for crediting to your Account, we will credit this to your Account as soon as we receive it. Please note that in relation to certain types of credit by way of direct debit into your Account, the paying bank has a right, in certain circumstances, for a period of time after the amount is transferred to us, to request the return of that amount. You acknowledge and agree that if we are requested to return that amount, we will debit an equivalent amount from your Account and confirmation of that debit will be available in accordance with Clause 6.7 of these General Terms and Conditions. You acknowledge and agree that we are entitled to do so and further that if, in doing so your Account becomes overdrawn, you undertake and covenant to immediately credit sufficient funds to your Account to return your Account to credit. If you fail to do so, the overdrawn balance on your Account will be a debt due by you to us. We may take legal proceedings against you to recover that amount and, further, we shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Clause 16 of these General Terms and Conditions if you fail to immediately return your Account to credit.

8. Proof

Save in the case of manifest error, you acknowledge that any recording and/or reproduction by us of Orders received through the Electronic Banking Services shall be admissible as evidence as to the content of the Orders as between you and us.

9. Limitations on Liability

9.1 We are not in any circumstances liable to you or any other person for any direct or indirect loss of any nature that arise out of any negligence or default on our part except where we are guilty of gross negligence or wilful default that directly causes:

- (a) the non-availability of any Electronic Banking Services;
- (b) the non-execution or non-timely execution of any Orders;
- (c) the provision of out-of-date, incorrect or incomplete information;
- (d) the mutilation, delay, loss, unauthorised perusal, alteration and/or forwarding of an Order;
- (e) the faulty functioning of Devices;
- (f) the unauthorised use of any PIN, Authentication Code or Device(s) up to the time when we are informed thereof by you (up to which time any loss is for your account only).

9.2 We are not liable for the consequences of any force majeure event, including but not limited to adverse orders and measures of any government or supranational or international organisation, international conflicts, violent or armed actions, strikes, boycotts, lockouts and other labour disturbances among our own personnel or otherwise, disturbances in any business whose services are utilised, malfunctions in our automated systems or in other business of which we make use in the provisions of our services, malfunctions in the telecommunications networks, or any similar or analogous event.

9.3 We undertake to do everything to ensure the good performance of the Electronic Banking Services. We are not liable for any temporary interruption of any Electronic Banking Services outside our control.

9.4 We are not liable for the direct or indirect consequences of any illegal, fraudulent or unlawful use of the Electronic Banking Services and/or Device(s) and/or PIN(s) and/or Authentication Code(s) by you or by others acting or purporting to act on your behalf. If we suspect any such illegal, fraudulent or unlawful use, we may suspend any Electronic Banking Services or terminate our relationship with you immediately. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in relation to a RaboDirect Current Account or a RaboDirect Savings Account:

(a) you will bear all losses relating to unauthorised payment transactions in that Account up to a maximum of €75 if that transaction results from the use of a lost or stolen Device, PIN or Authentication Code, or if you have failed to keep your Device, PIN or Authentication Code safe;

(b) you will bear all losses relating to an unauthorised payment transaction if you incur them by acting fraudulently or by failing intentionally, or with a gross lack of reasonable care, to fulfil one or more of your obligations under Clause 4.1 of these General Terms and Conditions;

(c) you will not bear any financial consequences resulting from the use of a lost, stolen or misappropriated Device, PIN or Authentication Code after you have notified us that it has been lost, stolen or misappropriated in accordance with Clause 4.2 of these General Terms and Conditions, unless we believe (acting reasonably and in our sole discretion) that you have acted fraudulently.

9.5 We are not liable for any direct or indirect loss resulting from any non-functioning or poor functioning of the hardware and software used by you, from any non-functioning or poor functioning of our software in combination with your hardware or software, or from any modification of our software made by you.

9.6 In respect of any software supplied by us to you, we have taken all reasonable steps in developing that software to ensure that it contains no viruses. We are not liable for any damage to your hardware or software caused by a virus in our software or a virus transferred to your computer during any electronic communication with us or transferred by means of an electronic communication originating from us.

10. Hyperlinks

We may provide hypertext links to websites on the internet which are operated by other people. Using an internal hypertext link means that you may be leaving the RaboDirect Website and we therefore take no responsibility in respect of linked sites.

11. Minors

You may open any Account (a "Minor Account") for the benefit of a person under the age of 18 (a "Minor"). In such circumstances we shall only deal with Orders and instructions that are, or purport to be, given by you. With effect from the Minor's 18th birthday, the Minor may elect to operate the Account and, with your prior written consent (or that of your personal representative(s)) to us, have full authority on the Account and sole responsibility for it from that date. If the Minor is to operate the Minor Account following his/her 18th birthday, you (or your personal representative(s)) shall notify us of this in writing and such notice shall include your prior written consent (or that of your personal representative(s)) to the foregoing.

12. Joint Accounts

12.1 You should only open a joint Account if you, and the other Account-holders, clearly understand what this involves. All joint Account-holders are jointly and severally responsible for all matters in relation to the Account. All joint Account-holders should monitor the status of the Account.

12.2 If you wish to impose any limitations on the operation of a joint Account, you must notify us of these immediately and we shall confirm whether such proposed limitations are capable of being imposed on such an Account.

12.3 You acknowledge that you are aware that, if two or more parties open a joint Account, that Account can be accessed, and the funds in that Account used, by any of the named Account-holders.

12.4 If a joint Account is opened in the name of two Account-holders, we may set off the balance on that Account against amounts due to us from time to time by any such Account-holders.

12.5 If an Account-holder wishes to close a joint Account, the consent of each Account-holder on that Account is required.

12.6 If we become aware of a dispute between joint Account-holders then we, acting in our sole discretion, may decide that the Account can only be operated on the instructions of all Account-holders. We may also freeze the Account until we receive instructions from all Account-holders as to how the Account is to be operated going forward.

12.7 If we become aware that a joint Account-holder has been adjudicated bankrupt or is suffering from a mental incapacity, we may freeze the Account and only permit it to be operated by the person responsible for distributing the assets of the bankrupt person, or the person lawfully appointed to manage the affairs of the person suffering from mental incapacity.

12.8 Subject to all applicable probate laws, tax laws, regulations and any clearance required from the Irish Revenue Commissioners, if a joint Account-holder dies, the credit balance in the relevant Account (less any amounts due and owing to us) shall pass to the surviving Account-holder(s) unless the estate of the deceased Account-holder has a claim to that amount.

12.9 If there are several Account-holders on an Account, notices and correspondence in relation to that Account will be validly sent if sent to the first-named Account-holder listed on the relevant Application Form.

13. Business accounts

If you open an account with us under these Terms and Conditions, you will be classified as a retail client. We do not offer business accounts to retail clients.

14. Set-off

14.1 In addition to any other right of set off we may have, we may set off any credit balance on any Account held by you (whether it is a joint Account or not, and without limitation as to the type of Account) against any obligation (whether or not matured) incurred by you to us, regardless of the place of payment or currency thereof. You irrevocably authorise us to purchase with the moneys standing to the credit of such Account(s) such other currencies as may be necessary to effect such set off or transfer at the prevailing spot rate of exchange (as conclusively determined by us) as may be required for that purpose.

14.2 The foregoing sub-clause shall not limit our right to demand that a debit balance on an Account be reinstated by you to a credit balance without taking into account any credit balances on another Account.

15. Change in legal status (death, divorce, residence, etc)

You/your personal representatives must inform us immediately in writing of any of the following:

(a) a change in your legal status, including but not limited to your ceasing to be a full-time resident of the Republic of Ireland;

(b) your divorce or legal separation;

(c) your bankruptcy; or

(d) your death.

If we are not made aware of the occurrence of any of the above, we will have no liability in respect of any action taken by us between the date that any of the above occurs, and the date on which we are notified of same.

16. Termination of the relationship

16.1 This Agreement is for an indefinite duration. We may terminate the Agreement at any time, in our absolute discretion, on giving you two months' notice by RaboDirect Secure Email or in writing to the last address notified by you to us. You may terminate the Agreement at any time on giving us 30 days' notice in writing.

16.2 If any of the following occur, we may block your Account pending the expiration of the two month notice period set out in Clause 16.1 of these General Terms and Conditions:

(a) your death;

(b) your bankruptcy or other act of insolvency; or

(c) gross negligence, a serious offence (including acting in a threatening or abusive manner towards any member of our staff) or fraud on your part or any other behaviour (including any suspicion on our part of a security threat to our systems) on your part that we in our absolute discretion consider to justify such termination,

16.3 If you have a joint Account, termination in respect of the Agreement with one Account-holder will cause termination of the Agreement with the other Account-holders.

16.4 Termination of the Agreement will lead to termination of all RaboDirect products or services that you have availed of, and will be without prejudice to liabilities incurred prior to termination.

16.5 Subject always to Clause 3.4 of the Special Terms and Conditions relating to the RaboDirect Term Deposit Account, if this Agreement is terminated by you within 12 months of its commencement, you will be liable for any costs we have to bear on termination. If this Agreement is terminated by you after 12 months from the date of commencement, such termination by you will be free of charge.

16.6 If the Agreement is terminated, you must return all Devices to us within thirty days or such shorter period as we may specify.

16.7 Following termination, we will place your credit balances (after deduction of our costs) at your disposal in the manner deemed most suitable by us and settle all outstanding transactions as quickly as is reasonably possible, having regard to all relevant circumstances.

17. Dormant Accounts

A dormant account is an account which has shown no activity for 15 years. If your Account is a dormant account, and the credit balance is more than €100, we will contact you to explain your rights, and our obligations under the Dormant Accounts Act, 2001 (as amended) (the "Dormant Accounts Act"). We do not have to contact you if (a) you have asked us not to or (b) we have previously attempted, without success, to contact you or (c) the credit balance is less than €100. In those circumstances, we will instead by way of public advertisement in two or more daily newspapers and the Irish Oifigiúil indicate that we have dormant accounts and asking Account-holders to contact us in relation to them. If you do not contact us, we will deal with the credit balance on that Account in accordance with the Dormant Accounts Act. It is possible for a holder of a dormant account to later claim for repayment of the credit balance. Again, we will deal with such a request in accordance with the Dormant Accounts Act.

18. Processing of personal data

18.1 For the purposes of the Agreement and for associated legal and regulatory purposes, we may collect, process and use personal data relating to you and, if applicable, to a Minor for whose benefit you have opened an Account. This personal data will include such information that we are required to obtain from you to comply with our anti-money laundering obligations, our obligations to the Revenue Commissioners and our obligations under the EU Taxation of Savings Income Directive and may include your PPS number. By accepting these terms and conditions, you consent on your behalf and, where applicable, on behalf of the Minor, to any such collection, processing and use of this personal data.

18.2 We may make your personal and transactional data ("Customer Data") available to all other divisions and entities in the Rabobank Group, and to agents, subcontractors, and third party service providers of the Rabobank Group.

18.3 Customer Data may be processed by us and other members of the Rabobank Group, our agents, subcontractors and third party service providers for regulatory or legal purposes and for any other purpose required for or reasonably incidental to the performance of our duties under the Agreement.

18.4 Subject to any preferences indicated by you in any Application Form, Customer Data may be used by us and/or other enterprises within the Rabobank Group and enterprises affiliated with it for marketing purposes.

18.5 You have the right to request a copy of any personal data or sensitive personal data held by us about you. You also have the right to have such data corrected where it is inaccurate or misleading. Should you wish to avail of either of these rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer for further details.

18.6 We may disclose Customer Data to third parties, their agents and professional advisers, under conditions of strict confidentiality, for the purpose of a due diligence by such third parties in the context of a proposed merger, acquisition, refinancing, or re-organisation of our business, or any part of our business which includes the RaboDirect business, involving such third party.

19. Communications and Notices

19.1 All notices and communications are regarded as validly given by us to you if (a) we communicate them via the RaboDirect Website, (b) we communicate them via RaboDirect Secure Email, (c) we send them to the last address notified by you or (d) we advertise them in a national newspaper, in each case as required by law. If you change your address, you must notify us in writing or through the secure part of the RaboDirect Website.

19.2 You agree that we may provide you with notices and communications via the last e-mail address notified by you to us.

19.3 If there are several Account-holders on an Account, notices and correspondence in relation to that Account will be validly sent if sent to the first-named Account-holder listed on the relevant Application Form.

(c) any changes to our charges in relation to products or services other than the RaboDirect Current Account or the RaboDirect Savings Account shall be notified by us to you by publication on the RaboDirect Website at least 30 days before such changes come into effect. If such Account becomes overdrawn as a result of the debiting of such fees and charges, you must immediately on demand being made by us ensure that such Account reverts to a credit balance.

22.4 Telephone expenses incurred by you when you contact us are for your own account, as are any costs such as costs of your account with your internet service provider, costs relating to your computer hardware, your computer system software, your computer programs and the like.

If you fail to provide any such information we may elect in our absolute discretion not to open any Account for you and/or terminate any Account that you may have with us.

24. Involvement of third parties

24.1 When we execute Orders that you give us, and when we carry out your instructions, you acknowledge and agree that we are authorised to use services provided by third parties and that we may place your money, goods and/or Investments into the safe-keeping of third parties. We will take the necessary care in selecting such third parties and, provided that we have taken necessary care, we shall not be liable for any negligence, misconduct or default by any such third party.

24.2 In certain circumstances, the aforementioned third parties may be situated outside Ireland with the result that a different legal treatment is applied to your money, goods and/or investments than if the third party was situated in Ireland and you may be unable to recover some or all of your money, goods and/or investments due to the default, liquidation, bankruptcy or insolvency of the third party. This transaction and custody risk is increased where the third party is situated in underdeveloped or emerging market countries.

25. Execution Policy

25.1 This execution policy (the "Policy") describes the process by which we will provide "Best Execution" to clients as required by the European Communities (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2007. In all our dealings with clients we will act in a manner that is honest, fair, professional and in accordance with our client's best interests.

25.2 We do not execute orders ourselves, rather we receive orders from clients and transmit them to the relevant product producer for execution. Currently we provide this service in respect of the UCITS funds listed in the Annex to these RaboDirect Terms and Conditions.

25.3 Given that all of the units and/or shares in investment funds are provided at the net asset value of the relevant investment fund and only one execution venue exists for each investment fund, the process of transmitting the order to the relevant product producer for execution produces the best result for the client on each occasion.

25.4 The product producers (listed in the Annex to these RaboDirect Terms and Conditions) (the "Product Producers") have confirmed that orders, accepted by them, will be processed in a timely manner in accordance with the terms of the relevant fund prospectus.

25.5 Execution Venues

We have reviewed the execution approaches of the Product Producers to ensure that they adhere to this Policy. The Product Producers are authorised by financial regulators in the European Union. In appointing the Product Producers we believe that they will offer the best possible result to our clients for the execution of orders in respect of that financial instrument.

25.6 Ongoing Review

The appointment of the Product Producers will be monitored and reviewed on a regular basis. This review will focus on the quality of the results delivered against the results that were possible and what was delivered, amongst other things.

26. Security

26.1 We shall and do have a lien over all Investments and other assets which we hold for your account for any reason whatever from time to time, as a continuing security for the performance of all your present and future, actual and contingent obligations to us including for amounts of principal, interest and charges. Upon enforcement of this security, we are entitled to keep such Investments and assets or to realise them. We may require further security from you from time to time in respect of your obligations to us.

26.2 If you are in default in respect of your obligations to us in any respect, for any reason, everything that you owe to us shall become immediately due and payable upon demand to us and we will be entitled to realise all or part of our security, at the time and in the manner which appear advisable to us, in order to recoup from the proceeds some or all of the amounts due to us plus interest and charges

27. Correction of errors

We can correct any errors that we may make and restore your Account to the state in which it would have been had the error not occurred without first receiving instructions from you to do so.

28. Invalidity

If any provision of the Agreement with us is held to be unenforceable, it will not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement with us.

29. No waiver

Any failure or delay on our part or on your part in enforcing any term of the Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of such term.

30. No exclusion

Nothing in the Agreement seeks to exclude or restrict any legal liability or duty of care that we may have to you under Irish consumer protection legislation, or under the Consumer Protection Code.

31. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms & Conditions are governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Republic of Ireland. The courts of the Republic of Ireland shall have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any disputes which arise in relation to these Terms & Conditions.

32. Conflicts of Interest

A copy of our conflicts of interest policy is available as part of the "Terms of Business" on the RaboDirect Website.

If we cannot do this to your satisfaction, we will:

(a) acknowledge your complaint within five Business Days, and let you know who is looking after your complaint, their contact details and how soon we hope to have your complaint resolved;

(b) investigate your complaint in full and seek to resolve it promptly and fairly within 2 weeks where possible. Some complaints can be resolved much sooner; others may take more time to fully investigate. If we cannot resolve your complaint within 40 Business Days, we will advise you of when we expect to resolve it. If you are not satisfied with this, you are entitled to refer the matter to the Financial Services Ombudsman, 3rd Floor, Lincoln House, Lincoln Place, Dublin 2 (www.financialombudsman.ie);

If the Term of your RaboDirect Deposit Account is one year or more the gross interest will be paid at the frequency selected by you when you opened your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account. As appropriate, DIRT will be deducted from the gross interest after the interest is credited to your RaboDirect Current Account (if you have one) or your RaboDirect Savings Account, depending on which of those Accounts you elected for payment of interest when you opened your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account.

3.6 If the Term of your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account is one year or more, we will notify you, at least 10 days before the end of the Term, of the impending end of the Term.

3.6 At the expiration of the Term, we will transfer your savings together with any accrued interest to your RaboDirect Current Account (if you have one) or to your RaboDirect Savings Account, depending on which account you elected at the time of opening your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account. You can also elect to reinvest in a new RaboDirect Term Deposit Account for the same term. If the Term of your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account is less than one year, you can elect for the initial amount of your savings together with the interest net of applicable DIRT to be reinvested. If the Term of your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account is one year or more, at the expiration of the Term you can elect for the initial amount of your savings only to be reinvested. The prevailing fixed rate of interest and conditions for RaboDirect Term Deposit Accounts of that Term will apply to any such new RaboDirect Term Deposit Account.

3.7 We reserve the right to terminate arrangements in relation to your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account if you fail to fulfil any of your obligations to us.

3.8 You cannot use a credit balance on your RaboDirect Term Deposit Account as security for any debt that you may owe, unless otherwise notified by us.

4. Rabo Money Mover Facility

4.1 You may avail of our Rabo Money Mover Facility. Under our Rabo Money Mover Facility, we will arrange for agreed amounts to be deducted from your nominated primary bank or building society account (the "Primary Bank Account") on a once-off basis or at agreed intervals. The Primary Bank Account must be held at an Irish bank or building society in your name.

4.2 If you wish to avail of this service, you must follow the instructions on the RaboDirect Website and provide any documentation requested by us.

4.3 You may set up one or more direct debits from your Primary Bank Account into an account held by you with us in this way. You cannot set up any direct debits from any account that you hold with us.

4.4 You will be irrevocably bound by the instructions which you give to us from time to time in relation to the amount, frequency, destination and the start and end dates of all direct debits. You may amend instructions, change details, cancel or suspend all or part of your Rabo Money Mover Facility by notifying us following the instructions on the RaboDirect Website; you will need to access the secure part of the RaboDirect Website to do this. If for any reason you are unable to access the secure part of the RaboDirect Website, you can contact the RaboDirect Customer Contact Centre by telephone and they will process your notification. If the amendment, change, cancellation, or suspension is to affect the next amount to be debited from the Primary Bank Account, you must notify us before 12 noon on the last Business Day before the agreed day for debiting that amount.

4.5 The availability of the Rabo Money Mover Facility is subject to sufficient funds being available in your Primary Bank Account.

4.6 In providing the Rabo Money Mover Facility to you, we and our agents will be subject to the rules (including rules in relation to timing) of the direct debit scheme operated by the Irish Retail Electronic Payments Clearing Company Limited. By giving direct debit instructions, you acknowledge that you are authorising in advance the debiting of agreed amounts from the Primary Bank Account on agreed dates.

4.7 You confirm that you are entitled to authorise direct debits from the Primary Bank Account without the consent of any other person, and that the Primary Bank Account is suitable for direct debits. You acknowledge that you will select the amount and frequency of direct debit payments to be made and will require no further notification of any such direct debit payments, save as recorded in your Primary Bank Account from time to time or as required by law.

5. RaboDirect Investment Account

5.1 Once you open a RaboDirect Current Account or a RaboDirect Savings Account, you can open a RaboDirect Investments Account. 5.6 You agree that you will only use the information provided on, or through, the RaboDirect Website for your own account.

5.7 You may give us Orders via the RaboDirect Website, relating to Investments. When an Order is executed, we will provide an electronic communication to you with details of that Order and the related Investment.

5.8 If we provide that information to you electronically, you must check it immediately. You must check that the Orders you give us in connection with Investments have been correctly executed. If you discover any inaccuracy or incompleteness in the execution of one of your Orders, you must notify us immediately and take steps to minimise any loss.

5.9 We list the market prices for Investments once a day on the RaboDirect Website and we clearly indicate the day to which those market prices relate. These market prices are provided for your information only. The time at which we list those market prices depends on the fund provider and the data vendor so some delays may occur. Market prices are subject to market fluctuations, and we are not responsible for such fluctuations. 5.10 You agree that:

(a) there is no certainty as to the market price at which an Order is executed and processed; and

(b) the market price at which an Order is executed and processed may be substantially different from the last known market price.

5.11 If you open a RaboDirect Investments Account and place Orders with us:

(a) you agree that you have accepted the risks set out in this Section 5 in full;

(b) you agree that you have read any other risks set out in the General Terms & Conditions and these Special Terms and Conditions and any other risks set out in documents referred to herein;

(c) you acknowledge that we have told you that there may be risks associated with the relevant Investment; and

(d) you accept all risks associated with placing Orders and making Investments.

5.12 The features of the Investments and some related risks specific to those Investments are contained in the "investments" section of the RaboDirect Website.

5.13 When you place an Order, you are obliged to confirm that you have made yourself aware of the prospectus and the relevant annual report in relation to the relevant Investment as made available on the RaboDirect Website or through a hyperlink on the RaboDirect Website to an external site.

5.14 Each Investment fund comes with additional information such as fact sheet(s). We advise you to read this information carefully before placing an Order having regard to your investment objectives.

5.15 The above-referenced information is not exhaustive. We are not responsible for its accuracy or completeness.

5.16 Orders must be placed in relation to Investments set out on the RaboDirect Website, and in the manner set out on the RaboDirect Website.

5.17 Orders must be placed and registered before the time stated by us on the RaboDirect Website.

5.18 If:

(a) you do not place an Order in the manner set out on the RaboDirect Website; or

(b) the Order is unclear; or

(c) you do not have a sufficient balance on your RaboDirect Current Account or on your RaboDirect Savings Account; or

(d) your Order does not satisfy any other condition set out by us, we do not have to execute or process your Order.

5.19 We have an absolute discretion to refuse to execute and process an Order placed with us.

5.20 If there are restrictions on the sale of certain Investments, you may not be able to purchase them.

5.21 We are permitted to set limits on:

(a) what you can do with your RaboDirect Investments Account;

(b) what Orders you can place; and

(c) what Investments you can place Orders for.

5.22 We are not liable to you for any non-execution of an Order, or for any delay in executing or processing an Order.

5.23 You agree that when executing an Order, we will execute each Order exactly as you have placed it with us. We do not decide, or verify, whether this is a good opportunity for you. We act for your account, and at your risk, taking into account the rules of the market for those Investments.

5.24 You confirm that, when you place an Order:

(a) you are doing so without any recommendation or advice from us;

(b) you are doing so in your own name, for your own account and for personal (non-professional) purposes;

(c) you are able to manage your own Investments;

(d) you do not need assistance from a professional investment manager;

(e) you are aware that you may make a loss;

(f) you will ensure that you are in a position to bear any loss you make;

(g) we are not liable for any loss you may suffer if the Investments fluctuate in value;

(h) we are not liable for any loss you may suffer as the result of your use or interpretation of information provided on the RaboDirect Website;

(i) we are not liable for any other loss you may suffer, except where such loss can be shown to be a direct result of our gross negligence or deliberate act.

5.25 If you have a credit balance on your RaboDirect Investments Account:

(a) you cannot use this as security for a debt that you owe to any third party;

(b) you can use this as security for a debt you may owe to us.

5.26 If, for a period of three or more consecutive years, you do not have a credit balance on your RaboDirect Investments Account, we can close that account.

5.27 You must ensure that you, at all times, have a sufficient credit balance on your RaboDirect Current Account and/or your RaboDirect Investments Account and/or your RaboDirect Savings Account to pay in full all sums that are due from you to us. We will not execute Orders on a partial basis if your credit balance is not sufficient for those Orders to be executed fully.

5.28 If you have an existing investment portfolio with another financial institution, this cannot be transferred to us.

5.29 We only provide services in relation to Orders and Investments via the RaboDirect Website to the extent that it is feasible for us to do so. We do not offer any service in relation to Orders and Investments in which we would have to physically participate (i.e. by delivery of documents).

5.30 We carry out the work required to administer your RaboDirect Investments Account. As long as we give you prior notice, you authorise us to terminate this work. If we notify you that we wish to terminate this work, you will place an Order to sell the relevant Investments (again, for your account, at your risk, and within the time-frame we specify). If you do not place that Order within the time-frame we specify, you authorise us to sell those Investments at a time we decide, for your account and at your risk.

5.31 You authorise us to exercise, on your behalf, rights that may attach to your Investments if this is necessary to administer your Investments properly.

5.32 We are not authorised however to do any of the following in relation to Investments:

- (a) convene a general meeting of shareholders;
- (b) attend such a meeting;
- (c) speak at such a meeting;
- (d) exercise voting rights; or
- (e) institute an investigation into the policy and the course of business of any legal entity.

Please note that notices of annual general meetings and other corporate actions will not be forwarded to you.

5.33 When you open a RaboDirect Investments Account, you authorise us to place, in safe-keeping, with any professional custodian (Irish or otherwise), Investments which are accepted by such professional custodian. Investments are held with a professional custodian in our name and at your risk. Any advantages or disadvantages of Investments being held by a professional custodian are for your account. As long as we give you prior notice, you authorise us to end the safe-keeping of Investments with a professional custodian if it is no longer feasible. If we notify you that the safe-keeping is to end, you will place an Order to sell the relevant Investments (again, for your account, at your risk and within the time-frame we specify). If you do not place that Order within the time-frame we specify, you authorise us to sell those Investments at a time we decide, for your account and at your risk.

5.34 Unless we agree otherwise with you, your Investments will be fungible. This means that the Investments returned to you will be of the same kind and value as those made. We do not have to account to you for Investments using specific numbers or in the same denominations.

5.35 You may place an Order with us to subscribe for new issues of Investments for your account and your risk.

5.36 In opening a RaboDirect Investments Account, you indemnify us, and agree to keep us indemnified for any claims made against us by third parties in relation to services we provide as a result.

5.37 When you open a RaboDirect Investments Account, you authorise us to, and acknowledge that we may, use services provided by third parties. Such third parties could include, for example and without limitation, professional custodians, fund providers, data vendors, stock markets, payment systems, settlement systems and transfer agents. We shall take reasonable care when choosing such third party service providers and, accordingly, are not liable for any loss you may suffer as a result of our use of their services. If we choose a foreign third party service provider, the laws, regulations and customs applicable to dealings with such foreign third party service providers will be binding upon you. If we use services provided by third parties in relation to an Order placed by you, we aim to ensure that the Order is executed correctly by such a third party, but are not responsible for its execution.

5.38 When you open a RaboDirect Investments Account, you grant us a lien over all Investments held in your RaboDirect Investments Account from time to time as security for all sums which may then or later become due and owing by you to us. You must do everything that we regard as necessary or desirable to facilitate this. When opening your RaboDirect Investments Account you grant us irrevocable authority to do any and all things that may be required to establish such a lien. If you place an Order to sell part of your Investments, you must ensure that the value of your Investments after the sale of that part of the Investments is enough to cover all sums that may be due and owing by you to us. Our lien will also cover:

- (a) (if Investments are exchanged) all replacement Investments;
- (b) any Investments in which a reinvestment is made; and
- (c) other replacement Investments, replaced for any other reason.

5.39 If Investments are redeemed, or if there is a repayment in relation to Investments you may en-cash the amounts and give a receipt for them. We can, if we choose to do so, set off the amounts received in respect of those Investments against amounts that you owe us, or we may use the amounts received to purchase new Investments that you indicate to us.

5.40 If we try to, and are not able to, contact you, we will credit the amounts received to your RaboDirect Current Account or your RaboDirect Savings Account, at our election.

5.41 If Investments are lost or leave our control in some other way, in circumstances where this is not due to an action or omission on our part, we are only obliged to take investigative steps to ascertain what has occurred in relation to those Investments or we can, in our discretion, arrange to have the Investments replaced by duplicates on condition that you indemnify us for any costs incurred by us in doing this, or any losses suffered by us as a result of this, and provided that you comply with any and all other reasonable conditions set by us.

5.42 If Investments that you purchase have rights associated with them, such as stock purchase warrants, and where it is stated that those rights will lose their value on a particular date, we will sell those rights on that particular date unless you give us notice in advance that you wish us to refrain from doing so.

5.43 On selling Investments we are authorised to credit (or have credited) the net proceeds from the sale immediately to your RaboDirect Current Account or your RaboDirect Savings Account, at your election, and to deduct the Investments from the RaboDirect Investments Account.

5.44 After executing an Order to purchase or after an allocation to a new issue, we are authorised to collect the amount due from your RaboDirect Current Account or your RaboDirect Savings Account, at our election, immediately and to enter a (received) item in the RaboDirect Investments Account.

5.45 We are authorised to debit and credit respectively the RaboDirect Current Account or RaboDirect Savings Account and the RaboDirect Investments Account following Investments and associated cash transactions. If any Investments are not yet available, settlement will take place on the first market day on which such Investments are available.

5.46 We reserve the right only to execute selling Orders after receipt of the relevant Investments and after it has been established that the Investments have been delivered free and unencumbered, as well as only executing buying orders insofar as the balance of the RaboDirect Current Account or the RaboDirect Savings Account permits such execution.

5.47 We are authorised to execute buying and selling Orders with ourselves or with others as the counterparty, at our election.

5.48 You must of your own accord check the status of the execution of your Orders via the RaboDirect Website. Our contract note constitutes proof that an Order has been executed effectively.

5.49 You can amend an Order but, if you wish to amend an Order that has not yet been executed, you must first cancel the existing Order and then place a new Order.

5.50 You can cancel an Order if it has not yet been executed. However, there may be a deadline for cancelling Orders. For more details on cancellation of Orders, including the procedure for cancelling Orders, please see the RaboDirect Website.

5.51 If you have invested in a fund, and a change takes place in that fund (such as a split) we will cancel any current Orders in relation to that fund.

5.52 In the event of special circumstances (including but not limited to a breakdown in the Order systems and delays in execution at the fund-provider or order-router level), we are not bound to you to execute Orders within the usual time-frame for doing so. We are not liable for any loss occasioned thereby, save in the case of gross negligence or a deliberate act on our part.

5.53 If we do not receive timely and full instructions from you, we are authorised but not obliged to carry our administrative and disposal transactions relating to credit balances in your RaboDirect Investments Account for your account and your risk.

5.54 Please see the RaboDirect Website for a summary of the fees applicable to a RaboDirect Investments Account. We do not charge custody charges and no stamp duty is payable. The only charges (other than management fees) incurred when investing with us are entry fees and exit fees. Please see the RaboDirect Website for an up-to-date table of those fees and the circumstances in which they are charged. We reserve the right to negotiate with the fund manager that a portion of its management fee will be paid to RaboDirect. We may also receive commission from fund providers with whom we deal. We confirm that these management fees and commissions will not result in any additional fees being paid by you.

5.55 The date from which the proceeds of an Order executed by us for you will bear interest is normally the day after the date on which the Investments Order is executed.

5.56 We are not responsible for making any tax deductions on Investments. You are solely responsible for submitting your tax returns in line with the current requirements of the Irish Revenue Commissioners. Any applicable taxes on the Investments and/or our services may also be deducted by us where indicated or as deemed necessary.

5.57 If you give us an Order to open a RaboDirect Investments Account, you also become subject to all of the rules, regulations, conditions and customs which apply to the execution of Orders in relation to Investments, the use of payment and settlement systems, the use of order routers and the use of professional custodial institutions from time to time.

6. Taxes

All accounts with us which pay interest are subject to Deposit Interest Retention Tax ("DIRT") at the prevailing rate. DIRT will be deducted by us at source and paid to the Revenue Commissioners from any gross interest payable from time to time in accordance with Irish law.
